Believer Chulu was born in 1991 in Lukata village central chibombo. Born in a family of five boys, Believer is the fourth born. His exact day of birth is not well known therefore we adopted 18 October as his birthday.

Believer's mother Mrs. Grace Chulu Moyo died in 1999, when he was 8 years old. His mother died after suffering from T.B for a long time. His father a Mr. Minerald Moyo on the other hand died when Believer was a very young boy. He is also said to have died from HIV related infections. It is however, difficult to account for the date and year of his death as the boy cannot exactly remember when this was.

After the death of his mother, Believer moved in with his maternal grandparents. It was during this period that he stopped school in grade 3. Since then he has never seen the inside of a classroom. When he moved to stay with his grandparent, he changed his surname to Chulu, which is his maternal grandfather's surname.

He does not know more about his paternal relatives all he can recall is that His paternal grandparents are in Zimbabwe.

Without schoolwork to think of, believer started doing pieces work in nearby farms so that he could raise money for food at home since his grandfather is blind due to old age and the grandmother is too old to engage in any income generating activities.

Believer's life depicts virtually nothing close to a banker he has always dreamt of becoming since childhood.

Nonetheless, since his adoption by Lifenet children's Rescue Mission on December 12, 2005, Believer has picked up his early days dream of becoming a banker as he has been enrolled into school, also the educational help he will be getting from home through the individualized education system. He has an ardent interest in learning how to speak English. For Believer the sky is the only limiting factor, because he wants to far in life.

It is very heartwarming to see a smile on his face as he looks forward what the future holds for him. He is a hardworking boy as he helps around with house chores.

He is a friendly boy and most of the time he likes minding his business. Believer's perceived temperament is phlegmatic. Positive tendencies that best describe his temperament are obedient, efficient, loyalty, friendly, helpful and a good team player. Negative tendencies that best describe his temperament are arrogant, stubborn, tease, insensitive and egocentric.

Believer loves singing as he was in the choir before he came to Lifenet he also loves football. His favorite meal is Nshima with Meat.
