

Joseph Cheepa was born on 12th May, 1998. He was born of Mr. Dominic Cheepa and Mrs. Anastasia Cheepa in a family of eight and he is the seventh - born.

His parents are poor gardeners who also look after other orphaned children. As such, Joseph was one of the children that were used in the garden for cheap labor. At a very tender age, he would wake up early in the morning with his young nephew, Truvent to go and work in gardens and herd goats.

By the time he was adopted by Lifenet, he had never attended school. This was because of some activities that kept him busy like working in gardens.

Lifenet adopted Joseph on 29th March, in 2004. He was then enrolled in grade one seeing that he had not been going to school during the time he was in the village.

Joseph's academic performance is below average. He is quite slow at learning and therefore needs a lot of individualized attention. He is one of the least in his class and we are apparently doing everything possible to make sure he moves to the top ten list in his class.

He is a very happy boy and who is sometimes quiet. He is also friendly and less physical with his friends.

Joseph's perceived temperament is choleric and adjectives that best describe his positive temperament tendencies are: friendly, charming, helpful, active, polite, obedient and willing. Adjectives that describe Joseph's negative temperament tendencies are: moody, uninvolved, crabby, untidy and noisy.

At church!

Therefore, an individualized mode of teaching has been employed to help him academically.

Joseph is now in grade two and says he wants to be a pastor when he finishes school.

Joseph is not too sure yet of what he wants to be after finishing school, as he loves football and athletics too in addition to wanting to become a pastor.
